HEALING LIVES THROUGH DIVINE MESSAGES

Stacie Overman is an Angelic Spiritual Channel, Author, Speaker, Personal Coach and Leading Edge Spiritual Thought Leader; guiding lightworkers to overcome obstacles through many avenues of deep soul healing methods. She helps the spiritually awakened future leaders decipher their soul-purpose and remove the blocks to their most abundant, authentic lives... so that they can then help others.

Stacie shares the teachings and love of the Angels with those that are ready to receive. With the help of her host of Angels she is profoundly changing the lives of beautiful souls all over the world.

Stacie began experiencing Angels during her battle with breast cancer in 2006. She is also excited about sharing her own cancer journey and the channeled Angel messages inside her book, "Angel Kisses No More Cancer." Launching April 30, 2019. As well as through her online program called The New You and live workshops and retreats.

Stacie's intention in sharing these teachings is to help those that are beginning to experience soul remembrance and guide them so they can experience more peace, love and joy in life. As well as begin to share Christ Consciousness and bloom into the spiritual leader that will help shift the consciousness of the planet.

Within the first few weeks of the New You Program, I was learning about deep rooted issues within myself that I never knew existed. These issues were holding me back in my personal life and affecting my marriage. Since the loss of my son, I have experienced a pain in my heart for my son that I thought I would have to live with for the rest of my life!

WOW, after following Stacie's steps for healing... the physical pain in my heart is GONE! I honestly did not think this was even possible. The best decision I ever made!

~Kristen Jackson

I have joy and happiness again in the small things. I found that light that had been buried for quite some time. When I laugh and smile it's real. I love myself again. I found me! My life has purpose now...meaningful beautiful amazing purpose. I'm different and I'm the best me I've ever been thanks to the program!

~Jess Henry

I now have confidence about my gifts and know I am not crazy! This has given me such awesome freedom, peace and fearlessness. Thank you, Stacie!

Stacie worked in corporate many years. She used her God given gifts of knowing and feeling to help inspire and motivate her clients. Never understanding the profundity of these gifts until a few years after her near death experience while battling cancer. It started coming together after she appeared on two seasons of Syfy's hit TV show, Ghost Mine. This is when she began to meet other people like her that helped to explain what she was experiencing was real and she wasn't crazy. She now coaches beautiful souls how to heal from trauma, fear and anxiety so they can understand divine messages and align with their soul purpose. Allowing them to live a life full of peace, love, joy and miracles here on earth.
